FALL 2019 PARENTING WORKSHOPS

Key Topics covered by the STEP workshops:
Improving communication and reflective listening; establishing consequences vs. punishment; promoting encouragement vs. rewards; learning to act vs. react

Learn through a variety of formats and resources:
Lecture, group conversation, role-playing, reading handouts and optional Parent's Handbook

Goals and outcomes of STEP technique:
Respectful, effective discipline; cooperative, independent children - and happier parents!

Testimonials: What Past STEP Workshop Participants Say:

"The STEP workshop should be a parent requirement! I learned so much from Liz Neville when I took her course and still use some of the techniques to this day. Her clear-cut approach to teaching is fun and enlightening. Liz is warm, funny and engaging. She's a pleasure to work with and can only help you to be the best parent you can be."

-Allison Hartstone P'26, P,28

"The STEP classes were a complete package! The weekly program is perfect, because you have time to learn, fail, and actually by the end of the full program finally became a better parent! STEP is my favorite parent orientation program!"

-Fernanda Pimenta. P'22, P'25

"Liz Neville is a wonderful person. As a Lower School parent, I found it helpful to know that I wasn't alone when she made a point about how we get so stressed trying to do the right thing. Then the right thing turns into "aggravation", raising your voice (and in the end), being exhausted. I also learned a very important word from Liz: consequences. When we do something we live with the consequences of our actions. And what she provides is almost like therapy!"

-Ani Ozgun P'23, P'24
